Memorandum

TO : Director of Training

DATE: 6 April 1970

FROM : Chief, School of International Communism

SUBJECT: Weekly Activities Report No. 10
30 March - 3 April 1970

25X1A9a

1. [redacted] reports from Saigon that the Vietnamese groups with which he is working are "pleasant, cheerful, apparently attentive and interested, but not responsive." He suggests that the lack of responsiveness may derive from the fact that they are essentially interested in getting an exposition and analysis -- rather than having a gab-fest. [redacted] adds, however, that he has been able to develop some useful discussions with the station's substantive and operational officers -- thus helping his own educational effort.

3. On 1 April we had a discussion with [redacted] former OTR staffer and currently Educational Advisor to the Commandant, Army War College. [redacted] was seeking our assistance in developing a series of background readings for the segment of the War College's curriculum dealing with Communist affairs -- particularly items dealing with the historical emergence and the current state of affairs in "world Communism."

4. There were no external presentations during this week.
